

Metropolis is a national magazine that examines contemporary life through design—architecture, interior design, product design, graphic design, crafts, planning, and preservation. It is in its 27th year of publication.

The cover of the current issue asks “Can Design Help Kids Learn?” It contains several articles focusing on school and classroom design that may be of interest to the Arizona K-12 Schools Community. Below are links to the articles.

IDEO’s Ten Tips For Creating a 21st–Century Classroom Experience

<http://www.metropolismag.com/cda/story.php?artid=3714>

Class Acts

These smart, stylish furnishings should enliven even the stuffiest academic environs.

<http://www.metropolismag.com/cda/story.php?artid=3712>

Open-Ended Learning

A survey of outstanding K–12 schools underscores the compelling ways that architects and designers respond to the changing nature of education today.

<http://www.metropolismag.com/cda/story.php?artid=3707>